Shipping Notes.

The barkentine Amelia is being recaulk-ed on the Marine Railway.

The barkentine Irigard has been prepa-rately scraped from stem to stern preparatory for new coatings of paint. She is lying in naval row.

The bark Albert is lying in the stream near the O. R. & L. Co.'s wharf. She is expected to leave for San Francisco about the latter part of the week.

The Duke of Argyll and the Enoch Talbot, lying at the new Fort-street wharf, and the Wrestler, at the P. M. S. wharf, are still discharging their loads of coal.

The steamer James Mace arrived from Ka-pua this morning with 2249 bags sugar and 100 bags rice. She also brought an 800-lb. pipe for the Pacific Brass Foundry. The sugar was transferred to the bark R. P.
Ridhet this morning.

THE MISSES ALBU.

A Great Musical Treat—Opening Concert to-morrow Evening.

The Misses Albu, the gifted English vocalists now in Honolulu, will give a grand concert in the Opera House to-morrow (Thursday) evening. That the public are aware of the musical treat they are going to have is shown by the large number of seats that were taken up immediately the box plan opened. The program is an excellent one, giving choice in different styles of vocaliza-tion. Miss Juliet Albu is down for "Sing Sweet Bird" and "The Song that Reached My Heart." Miss Rose will give "Maiden's Prayer," and "Angel's Serenade" (Braga) with violin obligato by Mr. Rosen. The talented ladies will join in two duets, "Hear Me Norma," the great duet for two sopranos from the Opera of Norma, and the sweet "Maiden's Prayer" of Alice M. Smith. The instrumental numbers will be filled by the orchestra and operatic flute and clarinet solos from Traviata and Sonnamb-ula by Mr. Barotti and Mr. Keogh.
Prof. Berger will act as accompanist.
The program is a lengthy one, and Honolulu people may expect an exceptional evening at the Opera House to-morrow, the first appearance of England's latest sopranos, the Misses Albu. Following is the program:

- PART I.
- Overture—Concerto..... Rudiger
 - Song—Sing, Sweet Bird..... Ganz
 - Flute Solo—Traviata..... Verdi
 - Song—Dear Heart..... Mattei
 - Gavotte—Dearest Love..... Munkett
 - Duet—Hear Me Norma..... Bellini
- PART II.
- Overture—Emeralda..... Herman
 - Song—The Song That Reached My Heart..... Miss Albu
 - Clarinet Solo—Il Sonnambula..... Bellini
 - Song—Angel's Serenade..... Braga
 - Violin obligato by Mr. J. Rosen.
Miss Rose Albu.
 - March—Joyful Days..... Roth
 - Duet—Maiden's Prayer..... Alice Mary Smith
- Accompanist, Prof. H. Berger.

Arrested for Larceny.

P. Muikuchi, a Japanese, was arrested this morning on the complaint of T. Hashima, a fellow-countryman, charging him with the larceny of watch springs and crystals.
Hashima is a watchmaker, and lately he could not account for the disappearance of certain little articles about the shop. He finally left the matter to Detective Larson for investigation. The result of the investigation was the arrest of Muikuchi, and the police think they have a good case.

LOCAL AND GENERAL NEWS.

The P. G. band will give a concert at the Hawaiian Hotel this evening. A dance will be held in the lanai after the concert.

A supplement of interesting original matter appears with this issue.
Subscribers will please notify us of any failures to receive the supplement.

Mr. Livingston, manager of the late M. Goldberg's store, is giving great bargains in men's and boys' clothing. See the prices elsewhere stated.

For a nice Christmas present, what is the matter with a pot or basket of choice ferns, to be had at Mr. Lillie's residence on Saturday afternoon?

Santa Claus' Headquarters will remain open every evening from now until Christmas. New goods for the holidays per S. S. Australia.

With the Friend for December are issued portraits of the late Rev.
Samuel Chenevix Tamm, D. D., and Mrs. Julia Miller Tamm, his wife.
Dr. Tamm was the founder and for forty years the editor of that periodical.

A large mongoose measuring two feet three inches from nose to end of tail was shot yesterday at the Enterprise Ranch, Nuuanu Valley, by Joe Silva. It had been committing havoc among the chickens and eggs.

A new carpenter shop for the L. I.
S. N. Co. is being built at the corner of Allen and Kilian streets on the Esplanade. The materials used in its construction were those from the abandoned Hualo mill, which were brought here a few months ago by the steamer Hawaii.

Mr. J. S. Walker, agent for the Royal Insurance Co. and Alliance Assurance Co., is first in the field with office calendars for 1894. On the Royal Insurance Co.'s calendar are most representations of the four groups of marble statues, which adorn the corners of the Albert Memorial, Hyde Park.

Owing to the gratifying press of advertising on our columns the past week, a good deal of local matter has been sacrificed after being put in type. A report of the cricket match on Thanksgiving Day was rescued from the killing process, because the winners being strangers it would look bad to suppress the record of their triumph.

Sixty-seven Japanese sat down to the dinner complimentary to officers of H. I. J. M. S. Naniwa at the Hawaiian Hotel yesterday evening.
Many of the most prominent Japanese residents were present. The Hawaiian National band played delightful music on the grounds during the dinner. On the hotel veranda and on the grounds were noticed prominent society people and naval officers—all lovers of good music.

Engine Co. No. 2 has been engaged all day in pumping water out of the cofferdam under the stern of the steamship Miowara. This afternoon the water has been so far reduced that the keel could be seen, revealing a large rent in the iron at the extreme end of the keel, where the stern post was broken off. The blades of the propeller received slight injuries by having been battered near the tips. So large a number of people took an interest in watching the operations that the wharf where the Miowara is lying was crowded all day.

STRUCK ON THE HEAD.

An Accident on the Water Front this Morning.

A native dock laborer named Lae-ula met with a painful accident on the water front at 10:30 o'clock this morning. Laeula was assisting in discharging the coal from the British bark Duke of Argyll, when a large lump of coal dropped from the bucket and struck him square on top of the head, making a nasty abrasion. The man fell unconscious and was picked up by fellow-laborers. Police officer Kalikole had him conveyed to the Police Station, and later to the Queen's Hospital, where the wound was sewed up. The man did not remember anything when he came to, the blow having been unexpected.

An Ecclesiastical Monument.

Mr. E. B. Thomas, contractor and builder, is now engaged at the Catholic Mission grounds in preparing the foundation for the erection of a handsome statue commemorating of the oldest church in the islands.
The statue will stand on the very spot where the old church of "Our Lady of the Peace" originally stood.
An artistically designed iron fence, the work of Mr. A. Jaouen of Union street, this city, will surround the statue. The fence will be about 50 feet in length, and octagon in shape.
It is anticipated that the monument will be the prettiest piece of work in that line ever seen in Honolulu.

Vehicles Collided.

A dray driven by a Chinaman named Ah Hoo collided with a brake in which was a native lad named Beni at the corner of Nuuanu and Beretania streets, this forenoon.
Beni was driving on the right side, and Ah Hoo in trying to turn into Nuuanu street, miscalculated the distance and the result was a collision. The axle of Beni's brake was smashed, the damage amounting to about $6. Ah Hoo was arrested for furious and heedless driving, and now he is taking lessons from Major Maey on how to turn a corner.

For rheumatism I have found nothing equal to Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It relieves the pain as soon as applied. J. W. Young, West Liberty, W. Va. The prompt relief it affords is alone worth many times the cost, 50 cents. He continued use will effect a permanent cure. For sale by all dealers. Benson, Smith

Islands.

Business dead? Not much!

Leastwise it is not so with the California Feed Company. We have made a business for ourselves, which has steadily grown through all the hard times other people are complaining about.
We have just secured from Mr.
J. F. Colburn his old stand, corner Queen and Nuuanu streets, and taken possession of those large and convenient premises.
We had to do so, because our old place at Lelele is too small for our fast-increasing business.
In a few days the bark "Mauna Ala" will be here again with her fourth full cargo of Hay and Grain, bought by our Mr. J. N.
Wright who will arrive on that vessel. We prefer to select our merchandise ourselves rather than have others do it, which means that we get better goods at a less price.

We thank our many friends for their liberal patronage for the past three years, and hope by strict attention to a business we thoroughly understand to merit the patronage of as many more.

Hood's Cures

Sciatic Rheumatism
Quick Relief and Perfect Cure

Mr. C. B. Patrick
Stockton, Cal.

"I was so badly afflicted with sciatic rheumatism that I could scarcely move. I used a great many remedies which did me no good. A friend presented me a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla, which I began to take. The relief was quick and two bottles cured me completely. I authorize the use of my name and portrait in recommending Hood's Sarsaparilla, for I think it a very valuable medicine. I recommend it to all who may be afflicted with rheumatism or cold fever sores, as I know of a lady in Oakland who has been cured of ulcers by this wonderful medicine." C. B. PATRICK, No. 365 California St.,
